Magazine «Autoparts and Prices» - is a federal advertising and informational publication for professionals and customers of the automobile components market.

The publication provides information to support the promotion of goods on the automobile market throughout the whole distribution network: manufacturer - distributor - wholesale companies - retail shops - autoservice stations - and ending with the consumer, on both national and regional levels. Our editorial office has several regional offices.

Content-wise our magazine is beneficial on a practical level to both small/medium-size businesses, work in the auto parts industry, and to the consumers. The magazine:

- highlights innovations on the global and domestic market of automobile components and accessories, oils, chemical goods, tires, disks, electronics, multimedia and navigational equipment; covers two main areas: passenger cars and commercial vehicles;
- regularly tests and reviews various car parts, components and units;
- publishes analytical and marketing research of different segments and product groups on the market of automobile parts;
- announces major events and exhibitions of the automobile industry in Russia.

Magazine audience, by its nature, represents a high concentration of companies - sellers and consumers of automobile parts, and is more finely targeted than audience of any other automobile periodical.

Advertising opportunities of the magazine allow achieving individual advertising goals, and can be used as a part of marketing strategy for:

- stimulating sales;
- announcement of new products;
- searching for dealers and representatives;
- increasing of consumer loyalty
